Two more than three is 6.

There are 6 people on red table, 3 on green, and 4 on blue. There are 15 people altogether?

There were 15 biscuits in the packet. I ate 5 of them after lunch. There were 11 left.

A teacher has 15 stickers. She gives out 3. She has 10 left.

I share 8 sweets equally between my 2 friends. They have 5 each.

I have 10 sweets. I give 3 to my friend. I have 6 left.

Sally is 15 and Daniel is 7. The difference between their ages is 8.

There were 12 people on the bus. 4 people got off. There were 8 left on the bus.

The total of 4, 5 and 3 is 12.

There are 22 children in purple class. On Monday, 3 children were absent. There were 19 in school.

There are 12 chocolates in a box. I ate 6 of them. There are 6 left.

5 kittens are in a basket. 2 jump out. There are 4 left in the basket.