

English skills and reading Support Pack

Week beginning 13.07.20

Focus: Non-Fiction

- The stimulus for this weeks work is Fairtrade.
- This links in really nicely to the work we are doing in Geography this term.
- We will begin the week by learning about what Fairtrade is and we will complete a reading comprehension.
- We will look at persuasive writing and we will produce a poster and a leaflet which gives information about Fair Trade later in the week

Monday 13th July 2020 — — Reading Comprehension

There are three levels of questions with one star being the simplest.

Remember to read the text carefully and use the information to answer the questions.

Remember where there is a line you need to answer in a full sentence.

Fairtrade

What Does Fairtrade Mean?
Some people make a living out of growing or making things to sell. The food and products are shipped all over the world. If the people are not paid a fair price, they cannot live well. Fairtrade is about paying a fair price for things that we buy.

How Does Fairtrade Help?

- It gets better prices for crops.
- It provides better working conditions.
- Extra money is given to communities.

How Can You Help?
Buy products that have the Fairtrade symbol on. Here are some of the products to look out for:

Questions

1. Find and copy one word that means rich.

2. Farmers cannot make money unless... Tick one.
 - ☐ they are given things for free.

Tuesday 14th July 2020:

Correcting Sentences

In today's lesson I have created a worksheet that has lots of spelling mistakes and punctuation that is missing.

Look closely at the sentences and correct my mistakes.

Remind your child that:

- Each sentence needs to begin with a capital letter.
- Words in a list should be separated with a comma.
- Sentences beginning with what, where and why need a question mark at the end of the sentence.

Tuesday 14th July

Correcting Sentences

The sentences below have many mistakes!

Write the sentences out again, adding in capital letters, full stops, question marks and commas. Also look out for the spelling mistakes too!

Wednesday 15th July 2020:

Persuasive Writing

In today's lesson I want the children to understand what the word persuade means and the techniques a writer can use to persuade the reader.

This will help the children because tomorrow I want them to produce a leaflet of their own.

Writing to Persuade

When you are writing to persuade, you are trying to convince your reader to do something or to buy something. You can do this by using your words to encourage or influence them.

There are lots of different ways that you can write to persuade.

You might have been persuaded by:

Can you think of a time when you read or heard something really persuasive?

Can You Spot the Features in This Leaflet?

Did you spot any other important features in this leaflet?

Thursday 16th July 2020: Producing a Fairtrade leaflet

I have attached a power-point for today's lesson it gives us lots of information about Fairtrade and explains the important things we need to remember when producing a leaflet.

I would then like you to use a template to produce your own leaflet.

Over 1000 products are certified with the Fairtrade mark in the UK.

FAIRTRADE

Fairtrade is all about people. Products are guaranteed a fair price for their quality. This makes them a pleasure for the future.

Shining poverty. Fairtrade has helped to lift millions of people around the world out of poverty.

FACT! The Fairtrade Foundation was set up in 1989. It has helped to improve the lives of millions of people around the world. It has also helped to protect the environment.

Friday 17th July 2020: Producing a Fairtrade Poster

Today I would like the children to be as creative as possible and create a Fairtrade poster.

Try to include all of the following features:

- Title
- Heading
- Sub-heading
- Pictures
- Photographs
- Use of colour

Try to include as many facts as possible.
