

Floop

Dreve

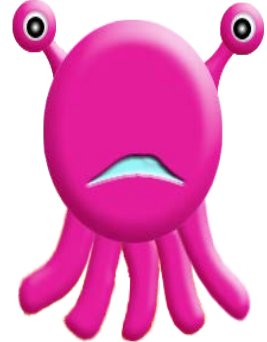

Zolly

Quike

Yoom

Clave

Strew

Plick

Jally

Things the aliens might do (verbs):

skip    clap    hug    stop    knit    jump help    splash    wash    hiss    wish    clean zoom    sleep    fight    twirl    work    meet cheat    walk    hike    smile    hope    bake change    like    wave    slide    hide    race

Use these verbs and the suffixes -ing and -ed to write sentences about what the aliens do.

E.g. Zolly washed all his socks.

Floop makes hissing noises when he is sleeping.

Words that might describe the aliens (adjectives):

sad    big    thin    long    quick    strong rich    young    soft    mean    light    bright short    tall    straight    calm    fair    neat sharp    loud    nice    fine    wide    late rude    pale    brave

Use these adjectives and the suffixes -er and -est to write sentences that compare the aliens.

E.g. Floop has bigger ears than Jally.

Strew has got the longest horns.