

Hello boys and girls,

Please keep a look out for achievement point and also awards on purple mash.

Parent's, I would like to remind you that you can also send in work via Evidence me or by email.

Evidence me is a great tool to use to build your child's profile and learning, you can send in photographs and videos of your child's learning, including reading books, pieces of writing, counting, P.E, speech and language, a personal achievement such as putting their own shoes on, brushing their own teeth or helping out at home!

This week our focus is 'Supertato

Here is the read aloud story

Please see the rhyme of the week at the bottom of the sheet.

Please note - this is a suggested timetable for your day. Please feel free to complete the learning when you feel is best.

Monday

English	Super me! What kind of Superhero would you be? Imagine yourself as a Superhero! What kind of super powers would you have? What would you do to help people? Can you draw a picture of your superhero and write some sentences. Try and think of your own sentences to write. Here are some sentence starters to help you. My Superhero name is... My Super power is... I will... My costume is...
Math/EAD	Can you create a Super hero mask using different shapes? Will your mask have circles, stars, squares? What colours will you use? You can use this to be a helpful hero!
Phonics	Daily online sessions on Teams (please see letter for timings)
PSED	Helpful hero! Can you be a helpful hero? We would like you to spend some time in your day helping at home! Being a very helpful hero! You could help to tidy up, wash the dishes, put your toys away or help to make dinner! We would love to see a photograph of you helping out! Perhaps you could upload it onto Evidence me.
Story time	Daily online session at 2:00pm

Tuesday

English	Fiction or non - fiction? Today for literacy I would like you to take some time looking at the books you have at home? Can you find a fiction and non - fiction book? Discuss with your grown up the differences between the two. What does a fiction book have that is different to a non-fiction book? Which one has photographs? Which one has illustrations? Which one is real? Which one is made up? Can you discuss this together? What about Supertato? Do you think this book is Fiction or non - fiction? Can you explain why?
Maths/science	Measure - Weight Can you be a human scale? Go around the house and choose different objects (ask your grown up to help you!) You need to choose heavy and light objects. Then ask your grown up to place an object in each hand. Which is heavier? Which is lighter? Can you show this with your arms? Like you would see on a scale? You could record your findings (There is a recording sheet on Purple mash or you can record in your work books)
Phonics	Daily online sessions on Teams (please see letter for timings)

P.E	Cosmic kid! Can you pretend to be Spiderman? https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fnO-IGEMOXk
Story time	Daily online session at 2:00pm
Wednesday
English	Character description! Can you write sentences about our main character Supertato? Who is this character? Is he good or bad? What is his personality like? What are his powers? What does he look like? You could even draw a picture of him to share!

Maths	Before half term we looked at Addition! We are now going to move on to Subtraction Subtraction is when we 'take away' and so the number/amount gets smaller. Please find subtraction sums on Purple mash Remember to solve these subtraction sums in the way is best for you! That could be: > Practically using objects or counters to physically take away and see what is left. > A number line (this can also be found on Purple mash) > A Tens frame with counters > Your fingers (with small numbers) If you do go on to create your own subtraction number sentences, remember! The biggest number goes first!
Phonics	Daily online sessions on Teams (please see letter for timings)
Well-being Wednesday!	We want you to have the time this afternoon to do something you love and enjoy! Whether that is cooking, making, playing, singing, dancing, reading or going outdoors! Have fun doing the things that make you happy! Please see Purple mash for activities to share on Well - being Wednesday! (Optional)
Story time	Daily online session at 2:00pm
Thursday
R.E	Please take time to attend our virtual weekly mass at 9:30am at St Chad's https://www.stchadscathedral.org.uk/
R.E	During this time of Lent we are going to think about the relationship between God the father and his son Jesus. Jesus was God's son and he loved his Father in heaven. Who is special to you in your family? You may choose more than one person? What special things can they say about them? Like us Jesus wanted to tell other people about his Father, because he was so special. He is God - he created the world we live in today. God our Father makes everybody precious and cares for us. Can you write about someone who is special to you? Can you tell me why and how they are special? What makes them special? You may want to draw this person or share a photograph
EA&D/Physical	Can you create your own Supertato? Using a potato of your own? Can you make your very own Supertato hero? You could draw on his mask an cape or get really creative and use materials! You can use tape, card, material, glue, felt tip pens!
