

Hello children,

This will be our last week of learning from home because week beginning the 8th of March, we will all be back at school. We are really looking forward to seeing you and we are immensely proud of how you have all adapted and carried on these last few months. I am sure that you have all missed being with your friends and I hope that you are excited about coming back to school.

This Thursday it is World Book Day, and our class story is, "The Tiger That Came to Tea". We will be planning lots of activities for you to enjoy and we would like you to dress up as your favourite story book character.

We hope you have a lovely week and we are looking forward to seeing you all back in school next Monday.

Take care, Miss Boon, Mrs. Clewes, Mrs. Bates, and Miss Hardy
