

Cut out these sentences and put them in the correct order to tell the story of the Garden of Gethsemane:

He went to pray a third time.

He went back to the disciples and found they were all asleep. He was very disappointed with them. He woke them up and asked them to keep watch for him.

He asked the disciples to keep watch while he prayed.

He went back to his disciples the third time they were asleep again. "Wake up!" he said to them. "The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to the power of sinful men."

He went away to pray the same words a second time.

When he went back to the disciples he saw that they had fallen asleep again. "Couldn't you stay awake even for an hour?" he asked.

Jesus and his disciples came to a place called the Garden of Gethsemane.

Jesus was very upset about what was going to happen to him so he went to pray.

He went away to pray to God that he might not have to go through with the plan God had set out for him.